

Countryside Renaissance – New Perspectives

27.9.2023^{WED}

19:00-20:00

Language
Cantonese

Format
ZOOM

Admission
Free

Quota
First-come-first-served

Mr. LAM Lai Shun

Winner, HKIA Young
Architect Award 2022

The seminar invites young professionals sharing their perspectives, visions and works in the recent waves of countryside renaissance in rural Hong Kong. Winner and Honourable Mention of the HKIA Young Architect Award 2022 would share their aspiration about rural Hong Kong and envision the potentials through design proposals. Founder of the Common Map, a young architect, would share his work and experience in engaging villagers in the vicinity of Lai Chi Wo, conserving the rich cultural context through engagement and synthesis. Fostering a multi-disciplinary dialogue, the Winner of HKIP Young Planner Award 2022 would join us and share her works from a slightly different perspective to rethink about the meaning of countryside and project the future.

Mr. Wu Hei Nam

Honourable Mention,
HKIA Young Architect
Award 2022

Ms. Mandy Wong

Winner, HKIP Young
Planner Award 2022

Mr. Christopher Choi

Co-founder of the Common Map

Moderator

Mr. Joshua Lam

Co-chair,
HKIA Young Member Committee

