青年建築師奬

06

The award-winning Young Architect Award scheme was established in 1986 to encourage young architects to take an active role in the development of the built environment. The award is presented annually by the HKIA to the best design submitted by a young architect (aged 35 or below) in the previous year. The award is presented to the architect(s) who has/have submitted the best design for a project in the previous year. The award is presented to the architect(s) who has/have submitted the best design for a project in the previous year.
