

HKIA Future City Vision Research Grant 2022
 Online Brief Session on 20 July 2022 – Tender Clarification

1	Language for Reports What is the language output for written and verbal works?	Material preparation during the grant period can be delivered in a multi-language format. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Chinese and English are acceptable for written works, subject to the medium of sources. Preference would be based on the intended audience of the deliverables - Cantonese and English are acceptable for verbal communication with the Steering Committee.
2	Eligibility for Application Will group applications be accepted?	HKIA will require the applicant to sign an agreement. The grant is for one student who shall be responsible for the tasks. How the student divides up his work or the grant money is up to the student.
	Will overseas applications be accepted?	Overseas applications are unlikely for this term, the work shall commence in August 2022 and end in March 2023.
3	Scope of Work What is the research direction?	The research should be focused on “Future City Vision” for Hong Kong, the subjects may include Northern Metropolis, Lantau Tomorrow Vision, Urban Renewal, etc. for example. The research areas may be GBA planning strategies, future demographics, etc. subject to the applicants’ proposals.