HKIA disciplinary guidelines and procedures for Handling Cases of Plagiarism in Professional Assessment Paper 8 Case Study

HKIA regards plagiarism as a serious professional misconduct for the architectural profession. In view of its seriousness, HKIA has worked out "HKIA disciplinary guidelines and procedures for handling cases of plagiarism in Professional Assessment Paper 8 Case Study" which will be effective from Professional Assessment 2014.

According to the guidelines, candidate(s) who commit(s) plagiarism in Paper 8 Case Study would receive zero mark in this paper and the result slip(s) of the concerned candidate(s) would be marked "zero due to plagiarism". The concerned candidate(s) is/are not allowed to take this paper in the following year of Professional Assessment.

For details of HKIA disciplinary guidelines and procedures for handling cases of plagiarism in Professional Assessment, please refer to the Section 6.4.16 and Appendix C of the Professional Assessment Handbook (updated in November 2013) which can be downloaded at HKIA Website at www.hkia.net.
